

ATTENTION TRI-STATE MEMBERS

You Can Be Recognized for Your Volunteer Hours!

The Presidential Volunteer Service Award recognizes individuals, families and groups that have achieved a specific number of volunteer hours of service in a 12-month period. Examples of service hours could be volunteering at We Can Ride, MN Hooved Animal Rescue, Church or Vacation Bible School, working the gate or presenting ribbons at a horse show, helping at a food bank, volunteering within your community, serving on a non-profit association committee...the possibilities are endless!

Tri-State Horsemen's Association has been an approved Certifying Organization for the PVSA program since 2010. Tri-State members may participate in 4 age categories: Kids Age 5-10, Teens Age 11-15, Young Adults Age 16-25 and Adults Age 26+. Each age category is eligible to volunteer hours to earn bronze, silver or gold level status. Tri-State members participating in the program will be able to record their hours on a log sheet and earn Pins, Certificates and a Congratulatory Letter from the President of the United States to be presented at the November Awards Banquet.
